OUR LADY OF GUADALUPE, CO-PATRONESS OF THE UNBORN — VISION STATEMENT

In the spirit of the Holy Family of Nazareth, the mission of Our Lady of Guadalupe parish is to be a humble, bilingual, pro-life, pro-family Catholic community, joyfully announcing the Gospel. We welcome all to religious education in the fullness of the Truth entrusted to the Church. We invite all to celebrate with reverence and unity the real presence of Christ in the rites of our Liturgy. We call our members to the humble obedience of faith and to sacrificial service for the sake of building up the Body of Christ.

Amen, I say to you,
no prophet is accepted in his own native place.

TO BE A PROPHET

Today's readings show us what it is like to be a prophet. As Jeremiah recounts his call, God warns him that he will need strength and perseverance to withstand the hostility he will face from "Judah's kings and princes" and "its priests and people" (Jeremiah 1:18b). God also assures him that they "will not prevail over you, for I am with you" (1:19). The psalm reflects both of these struggles as well as deliverance from them ("salvation").

This is exactly what Jesus experiences in today's Gospel. After he claims that his own mission is the same as what Isaiah proclaimed, at first the people marvel at his "gracious words" (Luke 4:22). Soon, however, they become suspicious, skeptical, and hostile, even threatening to kill him. But just as God promised to deliver Jeremiah, so Jesus "passed through the midst of them and went away" (4:30).

BISHOP CELEBRATING OUR 1:45PM MASS NEXT SUNDAY

Bishop, Joseph Brennan, will celebrate our 1:45 pm Mass next Sunday. He will institute 10 parishioners as acolytes. He will bless our Bethlehem Chapel Construction. Don't miss it!

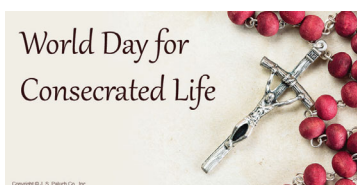

The acolyte is a lay person (male or female) instituted by the bishop for the service of the altar and to assist the priest and deacon. He or she is primarily responsible for preparing the altar and the sacred vessels and, if necessary, distributing Communion to the faithful, of which he or she is an extraordinary minister.

Many of the functions of altar servers ("altar servers" or sometimes called "acolytes" without being instituted) are primarily those of the Instituted Acolyte (IA). The other servers do them in the absence of the IA, who is specially authorized by the Bishop to do them.

When there is a need for an extraordinary minister of communion (EMC) the Instituted Acolyte is the first among them, who serve when there are not enough Priests, Deacons or Instituted Acolytes. The EMC are commissioned by the Bishop for a specific temporary period in a specific place, while the IA are authorized permanently. Thus, the IA performs functions already known and carried out by servers of the altar, Sacristans, and EMC, but it does so through greater official authorization from the Church.

In addition, the IA can perform services not allowed to other non-instituted ministers. He can purify the sacred vessels. In the absence of the Priest and Deacon, when determined by the pastor, he may expose and replace the Blessed Sacrament for Public Adoration or lead a celebration of the Word with distribution of Holy Communion.

Thanks be to God, our Bishop, the Holy Spouses, and to all parishioners who pray for and contribute to the Bethlehem Perpetual Adoration Chapel, we are happy that construction is finally beginning. Due to delays beyond our control, rising inflation, and increased construction cost, the budget has now climbed to $2,947,000. We ask for your extra financial sacrifices this year to help fund this amount. Please continue to pray for construction to go smoothly, be completed in a timely manner, and turn out most beautifully so that Our Lord may be properly adored every hour of every day without end.

WORLD DAY FOR CONSECRATED LIFE 2022

World Day for Consecrated Life will be celebrated in the Church next weekend. We pray for those consecrated to God by the vows of chastity, poverty and obedience, especially the priests of the Oblates of St. Joseph and the Sister Servants of the Blessed Sacrament, that they may seek to live their baptismal promises more intensely and have the grace to persevere in their commitment to the Lord and serve with open hearts and willing spirits. May they continue to be inspired by Jesus Christ and respond generously to God's gift of their vocation.

EL OBISPO CELEBRARÁ NUESTRA MISA DE 1:45PM EL PRÓXIMO DOMINGO

El obispo, Joseph Brennan, celebrará nuestra Misa de la 1:45 pm el próximo domingo. Instituirá 10 acólitos de nuestra parroquia. El bendecirá la Construcción de nuestra Capilla de Belén. ¡No te lo pierdas!

El acólito es un laico (varón o mujer) instituido por el obispo para el servicio del altar y para ayudar al sacerdote y al diácono. A él o ella compete, principalmente, preparar el altar y los vasos sagrados y, si es necesario, distribuir a los fieles la Comunión, de la cual es ministro extraordinario.

Muchas de las funciones de los servidores del altar ("monaguillos" o a veces llamados "acólitos" sin ser instituidos) son propias primeramente del Acólito Instituido (AI). Los otros servidores las hacen en ausencia del AI, quien es especialmente autorizado por el Obispo para hacerlas.

Cuando hay necesidad de un ministro extraordinario de comunión (MEC) el Acólito Instituido es el primero entre ellos, quienes sirven cuando no hay suficientes Sacerdotes, Diáconos o Acólitos Instituidos. Los MEC son comisionados por el Obispo por un específico plazo temporáneo en un lugar específico, mientras los AI son autorizados permanentes. Así el AI hace funciones ya conocidas y desempeñadas por servidores del altar, Sacristanes, y MEC, pero las hace por una mayor autorización oficial de la Iglesia.

Además, el AI puede hacer unos servicios no permitidos a otros ministros no instituidos. Puede purificar los vasos sagrados. En ausencia de Sacerdote y Diácono, cuando determinado por el párroco, puede exponer y reponer el Santísimo para Adoración Pública o también guiar una celebración de la Palabra con distribución de la Sagrada Comunión.

Gracias a Dios, a nuestro Obispo, a los Santos Esposos y a todos los feligreses que oran y contribuyen para la Capilla de Adoración Perpetua de Belén, estamos felices de que finalmente comience la construcción. Debido a demoras fuera de nuestro control, inflación creciente y costos de construcción más altos, el presupuesto ha subido ahora a $2,947,000. Le pedimos sus sacrificios financieros adicionales este año para ayudar a financiar esta cantidad. Continúe orando para que la construcción se desarrolle sin problemas, se termine a tiempo y de la manera más hermosa para que Nuestro Señor pueda ser adorado adecuadamente cada hora de cada día sin fin.

DÍA MUNDIAL DE LA VIDA CONSAGRADA 2022

El Día Mundial de la Vida Consagrada se celebrará en la Iglesia el próximo fin de semana. Oramos por los consagrados a Dios por los votos de castidad, pobreza y obediencia, especialmente los sacerdotes de los Oblatos de San José y las Siervas del Santísimo Sacramento, para que busquen vivir sus promesas bautismales más intensamente y tener la gracia para perseverar en su compromiso con el Señor y servir con corazones abiertos y espíritu dispuesto. Que continúen inspirándose en Jesucristo y respondan con generosidad al don de Dios de su vocación.

The Story of the Presentation of the Lord

At the end of the fourth century, a woman named Etheria made a pilgrimage to Jerusalem. Her journal, discovered in 1887, gives an unprecedented glimpse of liturgical life there. Among the celebrations she describes is the Epiphany, the observance of Christ's birth, and the gala procession in honor of his Presentation in the Temple 40 days later. Under the Mosaic Law, a woman was ritually "unclean" for 40 days after childbirth, when she was to present herself to the priests and offer sacrifice—her "purification." Contact with anyone who had brushed against mystery—birth or death—excluded a person from Jewish worship. This feast emphasizes Jesus' first appearance in the Temple more than Mary's purification.

The observance spread throughout the Western Church in the fifth and sixth centuries. Because the Church in the West celebrated Jesus' birth on December 25, the Presentation was moved to February 2, 40 days after Christmas.

At the beginning of the eighth century, Pope Sergius inaugurated a candlelight procession; at the end of the same century the blessing and distribution of candles which continues to this day became part of the celebration, giving the feast its popular name: Candlemas.

Reflection

In Luke's account, Jesus was welcomed in the temple by two elderly people, Simeon and the widow Anna. They embody Israel in their patient expectation; they acknowledge the infant Jesus as the long-awaited Messiah. Early references to the Roman feast dub it the feast of Saint Simeon, the old man who burst into a song of joy which the Church still sings at day's end.

La historia de la presentación del Señor

A finales del siglo IV, una mujer llamada Etheria peregrinó a Jerusalén. Su diario, descubierto en 1887, ofrece una visión sin precedentes de la vida litúrgica allí. Entre las celebraciones que describe está la Epifanía, la observación del nacimiento de Cristo y la procesión de gala en honor a su Presentación en el Templo 40 días después. Bajo la Ley Mosaica, una mujer era ritualmente "impura" durante 40 días después del parto, cuando debía presentarse a los sacerdotes y ofrecer sacrificio—su "purificación". El contacto con cualquiera que hubiera rozado el misterio—nacimiento o muerte— excluía a una persona del culto judío. Esta fiesta enfatiza más la primera aparición de Jesús en el Templo que la purificación de María.

La observancia se extendió por toda la Iglesia occidental en los siglos quinto y sexto. Debido a que la Iglesia en Occidente celebró el nacimiento de Jesús el 25 de diciembre, la Presentación se trasladó al 2 de febrero, 40 días después de Navidad.

A principios del siglo VIII, el Papa Sergio inauguró una procesión a la luz de las velas; a finales del mismo siglo la bendición y distribución de velas, que continúa hasta el día de hoy, pasó a formar parte de la celebración, dando a la fiesta su nombre popular: Candelaria.

Reflexión

En el relato de Lucas, Jesús fue recibido en el templo por dos ancianos, Simeón y la viuda Ana. Encarnan a Israel en su espera paciente; reconocen al niño Jesús como el Mesías largamente esperado. Las primeras referencias a la fiesta romana la llaman la fiesta de San Simeón, el anciano que prorrumpió en un canto de alegría que la Iglesia todavía canta al final del día.
