THE PEOPLE OF GOD'S KINGDOM

In our Gospel reading from Matthew, we hear the Beatitudes, the stirring opening to the Sermon on the Mount. Jesus is proclaiming the coming of the kingdom of God, and begins by considering what kind of people will enter and participate in this kingdom. They are the poor in spirit, the meek, the clean of heart, the peacemakers. We hear both Zephaniah and Paul echo this, as God specifically chooses the weak and the lowly to be God's agents in ushering in the reign of God. By living with humility and integrity, their hearts are open to being transformed by the grace of God. We too are called to live in this way. Jesus invites us to be people with open hearts, to receive God's blessing. And working through us, God may bless all of creation.

The Story of the Presentation of the Lord

At the end of the fourth century, a woman named Etheria made a pilgrimage to Jerusalem. Her journal, discovered in 1887, gives an unprecedented glimpse of liturgical life there. Among the celebrations she describes is the Epiphany, the observance of Christ's birth, and the gala procession in honor of his Presentation in the Temple 40 days later. Under the Mosaic Law, a woman was ritually "unclean" for 40 days after childbirth, when she was to present herself to the priests and offer sacrifice—her "purification." Contact with anyone who had brushed against mystery—birth or death—excluded a person from Jewish worship. This feast emphasizes Jesus' first appearance in the Temple more than Mary's purification.

The observance spread throughout the Western Church in the fifth and sixth centuries. Because the Church in the West celebrated Jesus' birth on December 25, the Presentation was moved to February 2, 40 days after Christmas.

At the beginning of the eighth century, Pope Sergius inaugurated a candlelight procession; at the end of the same century the blessing and distribution of candles which continues to this day became part of the celebration, giving the feast its popular name: Candlemas.

Reflection

In Luke's account, Jesus was welcomed in the temple by two elderly people, Simeon and the widow Anna. They embody Israel in their patient expectation; they acknowledge the infant Jesus as the long-awaited Messiah. Early references to the Roman feast dub it the feast of Saint Simeon, the old man who burst into a song of joy which the Church still sings at day's end.

La Historia de la Presentación del Señor

A finales del siglo IV, una mujer llamada Etheria peregrinó a Jerusalén. Su diario, descubierto en 1887, ofrece una visión sin precedentes de la vida litúrgica allí. Entre las celebraciones que describe está la Epifanía, la observación del nacimiento de Cristo y la procesión de gala en honor a su Presentación en el Templo 40 días después. Bajo la Ley Mosaica, una mujer era ritualmente "impura" durante 40 días después del parto, cuando debía presentarse a los sacerdotes y ofrecer sacrificio—su "purificación".

El contacto con cualquiera que hubiera rozado el misterio —nacimiento o muerte— excluía a una persona del culto judío. Esta fiesta enfatiza más la primera aparición de Jesús en el Templo que la purificación de María.

La observancia se extendió por toda la Iglesia occidental en los siglos quinto y sexto. Debido a que la Iglesia en Occidente celebró el nacimiento de Jesús el 25 de diciembre, la Presentación se trasladó al 2 de febrero, 40 días después de Navidad.

A principios del siglo VIII, el Papa Sergio inauguró una procesión a la luz de las velas; a finales del mismo siglo la bendición y distribución de velas, que continúa hasta el día de hoy, pasó a formar parte de la celebración, dando a la fiesta su nombre popular: Candelaria.

Reflexión

En el relato de Lucas, Jesús fue recibido en el templo por dos ancianos, Simeón y la viuda Ana. Encarnan a Israel en su espera paciente; reconocen al niño Jesús como el Mesías largamente esperado. Las primeras referencias a la fiesta romana la llaman la fiesta de San Simeón, el anciano que prorrumpió en un canto de alegría que la Iglesia todavía canta al final del día.
